33. Functions of Regional Prisons Commander

(1) The Regional Prisons Commander shall, subject to the direction of the Commissioner General, be responsible for the implementation of the departmental policies, projects and production, distribution of supplies and co-ordination of all institutional activities to ensure compliance to national and international standards governing treatment of offenders and prevention of crime in his or her region.

(2) The Regional Prisons Commander will ensure that there is effective staff deployment, ensure there are contingency plans for crisis handling and ensure that the District Commanders supervise all prisons against any human rights abuses within their administrative areas.

(3) The Regional Prisons Commander will maintain regular follow up of reports between the Commissioner General and the region for proper co-ordination and administration.

34. District Prisons Commander

The Commissioner General shall appoint a Senior Prison Officer as District Prisons Commander who shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as the Commissioner General may direct.

35. Security measures

The Commissioner General shall determine the security measures applicable to prisons, and may determine different security measures in respect of different prisons.

PART V—GENERAL POWERS, DUTIES AND PRIVILEGES OF PRISON OFFICERS.

36. General powers and duties of Prison Officers

(1) A prison officer shall—

(a) exercise or perform such powers and duties or functions as are conferred upon or assigned to him or her by or under this Act by virtue of his or her rank; and

(b) obey all lawful orders and directions in respect of the execution of such duties or functions as he or she may from time to time receive from officers senior in rank to him or her.

(2) In the performance of his or her functions under this Act, a prison officer shall be under the direction and control of the immediate supervisor and shall act in accordance with this Act and the regulations made under this Act, standing orders and administrative instructions made or issued by the Commissioner General.

37. Prison officers to exercise police powers

(1) A prison officer shall have all powers, protection and privileges of a police officer within a prison or while in charge of prisoners for the purpose of transferring any person to or from a prison and for the purpose of apprehending any prisoner who may have escaped or attempted to escape from lawful custody.

(2) A prison officer may, on reasonable suspicion that a person is a deserter from the Service, arrest such person without warrant and shall immediately hand him or her to a police officer for prosecution in a court of law for desertion.

38. Prison officers to be assigned to any part of Uganda

A prison officer may at any time be assigned by the Commissioner General to any part of Uganda for duty or to perform any function conferred upon or assigned to him or her under this Act.

39. Powers of search

(1) A prison officer may at any time examine anything within or being brought into or taken out of a prison and may stop and search any vehicle or persons within a prison or going into or out of a prison or any vehicle which is being driven or parked close to the prison or a prisoner, where the prison officer has reasonable grounds to suspect that such a vehicle or person is unlawfully carrying a prohibited article or any property belonging to or used by the Service or is about to be involved in the commission of an offence under this act.

(2) A prison officer on duty in a prison may refuse entry into the prison premises to any person who refused to be searched and may order any person on the prison premises who refused to be searched to be removed.

(3) Where, upon a search made under subsection (1) a person, other than a prisoner, is found in the unlawful possession of a prohibited article or any property belonging to or used by the Service, the prison officer having made the search may arrest that person, and as soon as practicable hand him or her over to the nearest police station.

(4) A prisoner found in unlawful possession of a prohibited article or any property belonging to or used by the Service upon a search made under subsection (1) shall be dealt with in accordance with the relevant provisions of this Act or the Penal Code as the case may be.

(5) The prisons officer arresting a person under subsection (3) may seize the prohibited article or property belonging to, or used by the Service found in that person's possession or impound the vehicle involved and such article, property, or vehicle shall be dealt with in accordance with this Act or the Penal Code Act.

(6) The search of a woman under this section shall only be made by a female prison officer while search of a man shall be conducted by a male prison officer.

40. Use of force or weapons by prison officers

(1) The officer in charge may authorise a prison officer to use such force against a prisoner as is reasonably necessary to ensure compliance with lawful orders and to maintain discipline in the prison.

(2) A prison officer shall, in carrying out his or her duty, as far as possible apply non-violent means before resorting to use of force or firearms only if other means remain ineffective or fail to achieve the intended result.

(3) Whenever the lawful use of force or firearms is unavoidable, a prison officer shall—

- (a) exercise restraint in such use and act in proportion to the seriousness of the threat and the legitimate objective to be achieved;
- (b) minimise damage and injury, and respect and preserve the prisoner's life;
- (c) ensure that assistance and medical aid are rendered to any injured or affected prisoners at the earliest possible moment;
- (d) where injury or death is caused by the use of force or firearm by a prison officer, the concerned officer shall promptly report the incident to a senior officer who will take necessary and appropriate action;
- (e) ensure that relatives or close friends of the injured or affected prisoner are notified at the earliest possible moment.

(4) Whenever an officer in charge considers it necessary for the safe custody of a prisoner that he or she should be confined by means of mechanical restraint in the course of his or her transfer or while temporarily outside the premises of the prison, the officer in charge may cause that prisoner to be so confined in accordance with the prescribed procedure.

(5) If a prisoner attempts to escape or attacks or threatens to attack any prison officer or any other person or in concert with others commits any act of violence, a prison officer authorised under subsection (3) may, whenever it is necessary to prevent the escape or in defence of himself or herself or any other person, use a firearm upon any such prisoner.

(6) The Commissioner General may authorise a prison officer or person employed in or about any prison to be armed with any particular weapon or weapons, other than firearms, for use in the circumstances described in subsection (5) and in those circumstances any prison officer or person so authorised may use the weapon or weapons for any of the purposes mentioned in that subsection.

(7) If a prison officer or person authorised to be armed and acting in circumstances contemplated in subsection (3) and (5), as the case may be, kills or wounds any prisoner, he or she shall not commit an offence.

(8) The use of any force or weapon under this section shall be to disable and not to kill.

41. Senior officers to check unlawful use of force or firearms

(1) A senior officer shall be held responsible if he or she knows, or should have known, that a prison officer under his or her command is resorting, or has resorted, to the unlawful use of force or firearms, and the senior officer did not take any measures in his or her power to prevent, suppress or report such use.

(2) Obedience to superior orders shall be no defence if a prison officer knew that an order to use force or a firearm resulting into death or a serious injury of a prisoner was manifestly unlawful and had a reasonable opportunity to refuse to obey it.

(3) A prisoner affected by the unlawful use of force and firearms, or their legal representatives, or in the case of death of a prisoner, their dependants, shall have access to an independent judicial process.

42. Circumstances under which a prison officer may use a firearm

(1) Subject to section 40, a prison officer may use such force against a prisoner as is reasonably necessary in order to make the prisoner obey lawful orders to maintain discipline in a prison.

(2) A prison officer may use weapons against any prisoner escaping or attempting to escape except that—

(a) resort shall not be made to the use of any weapon unless the prison officer has reasonable ground to believe that he or she cannot otherwise prevent the escape; and

(b) a firearm shall not be used against a prisoner unless the prison officer has first given a clear warning to the prisoner that he or she is about to fire upon him or her and sufficient time is given for the warning to be observed and such warning goes unheeded.

(3) A prison officer may use weapons against any prisoner—

(a) engaged in any combined breaking out or in any attempt to force or break open the outside door or gate or enclosure wall of the prison, and may continue to use such weapons so long as such combined breaking out is actually prosecuted;

(b) using violence to any prison officer or other person as such prison officer has reasonable ground to believe that the prison officer or other person is in danger of life or limb, or that other grievous harm is likely to be caused to him or her;

(c) engaged with others in riotous or threatening behaviour and refused to desist when called upon to do so.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (2) and (3), no prison officer shall use any weapon against a prisoner in the presence of his or her senior officer except under the orders of that senior officer.

43. Immunity of prison officers

(1) The Government, the Commissioner General or a prison officer shall not be liable in respect of anything done bona fide under this Act.

(2) No act done by a prison officer under a warrant or written directive or authorisation shall be invalidated or rendered unlawful only by reason of an irregularity in that warrant, directive or authorization, as the case may be, if the prison officer acted in good faith and believed on reasonable grounds that the warrant, directive or authorization was validly issued.

44. Power to take photographs and fingerprints of prisoners

(1) An officer in charge may for the purpose of assisting in the conduct of investigations cause photographs, footprints and casts thereof, measurements, palm prints and fingerprints of any prisoner to be taken by any prison officer or other person duly authorised by the Commissioner General to take such photographs or prints as mentioned in the subsection.

(2) The provisions of the Identification of Offenders Act shall apply to the taking of fingerprints under this section.

PART VI—OFFENCES BY PRISON OFFICERS.

45. Mutiny

(1) A prison officer who conspires with any other prison officer to mutiny, cause a mutiny, join a mutiny, and is aware of or suspects another prison officer of conspiring to cause a mutiny, and he or she fails to report such fact without delay to the Commissioner General or his or her immediate senior officer commits an offence, and is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years or to a fine not exceeding sixty currency points or both.

(2) For the purpose of subsection (1) “mutiny” means conduct or speech directed against the authority of the Service with the intention to breach public order and incite rebellion against such authority.

46. Absenteeism

(1) A prison officer shall not absent himself or herself from his or her post or official duties and official residence without reasonable cause or the express permission of the Commissioner General or of the prison officer authorised by the Commissioner General to grant such permission.

(2) A prison officer who absents himself or herself from his or her post or official duty, withdraws himself or herself from duty, is absent without leave or without reasonable excuse, commits an offence, and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding thirty currency points or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding twelve months or to both.

47. Desertion

(1) A prison officer deserts if—

(a) he or she absents himself or herself without authority from his or her prison or formation or from the place where his or her duty requires him or her to be, with the intention of not returning to the prison;

(b) while absent with authority from the prison or from the place where his or her prison station or the place where his or her duty requires him or her to be with the intention of not returning to that prison or place does an act, or omits to do an act the natural and probable consequence of which act or commission is to preclude the return to that prison unit or formation or place at the time required.

(2) A person who has been absent without authority for a continuous period of twenty-one days or more shall, unless the contrary is proved, be presumed to have deserted for purposes of subsection (1) and (2).

(3) A person who deserts the Service commits an offence and is liable on conviction to imprisonment for one year.

(4) A person who assists, procures, persuades or attempts to assist, procure or persuade, another to desert the Service commits an offence and is liable on conviction to the same punishment as the deserter.

(5) A prison officer who has been declared a deserter from the Service shall be arrested without a warrant of arrest and handed over to the police for prosecution.

48. Inciting prison officers to desert

(1) A person who directly or indirectly incites, conspires, or persuades or attempts to make or persuade any prison officer to desert the Service, or who aids, abets or is an accessory to the desertion of a prison officer or who harbours such deserter or aids in concealing or rescuing such prison officer from apprehension, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding thirty currency points or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding twelve months or to both.

(2) No person who leaves the Service on completion of his or her period of engagement shall be guilty of an offence under this section provided the Commissioner General does not retain the retired officer in times of emergency.

49. Assault by prison officers on another officer in rank

A prison officer who assaults, threatens or insults any officer senior to him or her in the Service, when such senior officer is on duty or when the assault, threat or insult relates to or is consequent upon the discharge of duty by the officer so assaulted, threatened or insulted, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding thirty currency points or to both.

50. Other offences

A prison officer or any other person employed in a prison who, outside the ambit of his or her functions under this Act and without the prior authorisation of the Commissioner General or the officer in charge—

- (a) sells or has direct or indirect interest in any sale of any article to a prisoner; or conducts any business dealing with a prisoner or with another person acting on behalf of a prisoner;

- (b) solicits, accepts or receives any gift, gratuity, or reward from a prisoner or another person acting on behalf of a prisoner; or receives any discounts, gifts or other considerations from contractors or suppliers of goods to the Service;
- (c) permits any intoxicating liquor, tobacco, habit forming drug, opiate, money, clothing, letter, document or any other provision or article to be sold to or on behalf of a prisoner; or lends, or gives to any prisoner any intoxicating liquor, tobacco, habit forming drugs, opiate, money, clothing, letter, document or other provision or article; or
- (d) conveys or permits any letter, document or other article to be conveyed out of a prison, or informs the press or any other person of any confidential matter concerning a prison or a prisoner or any confidential matter derived from official sources connected with or related to the Service, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding thirty currency points or imprisonment for a period not exceeding twelve months or both.

51. Prison officers not to engage in dealings with prisoners

(1) A prison officer shall not receive a fee or gratuity from or have any business dealings with prisoners or with visitors to prisoners nor correspond with or interact with friends or relatives of a prisoner unless expressly authorised to do so by the Commissioner General or any other senior officer.

(2) No prison officer unless so authorised by the Commissioner General shall give any certificate or testimonial to or in respect of any prisoner as regards his or her conduct in prison or otherwise.

(3) No prison officer, except in accordance with the provisions of this Act or in accordance with orders or instructions from the Commissioner General shall convey any communication or article to or from a prisoner.

(4) A prison officer who contravenes the provisions of this section commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding fifteen currency points or imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months or to both.

PART VII—DISCIPLINE OF PRISON OFFICERS.

52. Power of disciplinary control

(1) The power of disciplinary control of a prison officer—

(a) of or above the rank of Senior Superintendent of Prisons shall vest in the Prisons Authority; and

(b) below the rank of Senior Superintendent of Prisons shall vest in the Prisons Council.

(2) The Prisons Authority and the Prisons Council shall empower the Regional Prisons Commander and the officer in charge to handle disciplinary cases on behalf of the Prisons Authority or Prisons Council as the case may be.

53. Recommendation for dismissal of prison officers

(1) A Regional Prisons Commander or officer in charge empowered under section 52 to discipline prison officers may impose any penalty other than dismissal.

(2) Where after disciplinary proceedings, a Regional Prisons Commander or officer in charge is of the view that dismissal should be an appropriate penalty to be imposed, it shall make recommendations to that effect—

- (a) in the case of senior prison officer, to the Prisons Authority; and
- (b) in the case of subordinate prison officer, to the Prisons Council.

(3) Where the Prisons Authority or the Prisons Council accepts the recommendations of the Regional Prisons Commander or officer in charge as the case may be, that prison officer may, upon being heard, be dismissed.

54. Arrest for disciplinary offence

(1) Where a prisons officer or person employed in the Service commits or attempts to commit an aggravated offence against the Code, he or she, may be arrested with or without a warrant by a prisons officer higher in rank.

55. Place of confinement of offenders

A prisons officer arrested in respect of an offence under this Part of this Act shall be informed as soon as is practicable of the nature of the offence and be confined in a guardroom or a cell provided for that purpose.

56. Criminal proceedings take precedence over disciplinary proceedings

If criminal proceedings of a nature likely to warrant disciplinary proceedings are instituted against a person, no such disciplinary proceedings shall be taken until the conclusion of the criminal proceedings and the determination of any appeal arising from those proceedings.

PART VIII—ADMISSION, TREATMENT, CONTROL AND DISCHARGE OF PRISONERS.

57. Rights of prisoners

Subject to the Constitution and this Act, a prisoner is entitled to the following—

- (a) a prisoner shall be treated with the respect due to his/her inherent dignity and value as a human being;
- (b) no prisoner shall be discriminated against on the grounds of race, colour, sex, language, religion, political or other opinion, national or social origin, property, birth or other status;

- (c) freedom of worship, whenever conditions allow;
- (d) to take part in cultural activities and education aimed at the full development of the human personality;
- (e) to undertake meaningful remunerated employment;
- (f) have access to the health services available in the country without discrimination of their legal situation.

58. Admission of prisoners into prison

(1) No person shall be received or admitted into prison custody without a valid commitment or a remand warrant, order of detention, warrant of conviction or committal signed with a court seal or authenticated by a person authorised to sign or authenticate such warrant or order under the provision of any law.

(2) The officer-in-charge shall satisfy himself or herself before the admission of any person into prison custody that—

- (a) the particulars of each person are accurately described in the warrant or order of detention accompanying such person; and
- (b) such warrant or order of detention has been properly issued or authenticated.

(3) The officer in charge shall not admit any person in custody if the person is severely tortured and is in a bad health condition.

(4) The officer in charge shall not refuse to admit a person into prison custody only by reason of an error on the face of the warrant or order of detention but shall take steps as soon as is practicable, to have the error rectified.

(5) Every prisoner on admission shall be provided with written information on the following—

- (a) the regulations governing the treatment of prisoners of that category;
- (b) the disciplinary requirements of the institution;
- (c) the centralised methods of seeking information and making complaints (complaints procedure);
- (d) all other such matters as are necessary to enable the prisoner to understand both his or her rights and obligations so as to adopt to the life of the institution.

(6) Where a person is sentenced to imprisonment in a place where a prison has not been established or a prisoner is under the authority of the Commissioner General temporarily transferred to a police cell or lock-up, such prisoner may be detained in a prison cell or lock-up for a period not exceeding one month or for such further period as the Commissioner General may authorise.

(7) A person shall not admit a juvenile prisoner into a prison designated for adult prisoners.

59. Admission of female prisoners with infants

(1) Female prisoners shall be admitted and confined in separate prisons, or part of the prison set for female prisoners.

(2) Subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, a female prisoner may be admitted into prison custody with her infant.

(3) A female prisoner, pregnant prisoner or nursing mother may be provided special facilities needed for their conditions.

(4) An infant referred to in subsection (2) shall be supplied clothing and other necessities of life by the State until the infant attains the age of 18 months in which case the officer in charge shall, on being satisfied that there is a relative or friend of the infant able and willing to support it, cause the infant to be handed over to the relative or friend.

(5) Where there is no relative or friend who is able and willing to support the infant, the Commissioner General may, subject to the relevant laws, entrust the care of the infant to the welfare or probation authority as the Commissioner General may approve for that purpose.

60. Custody of female prisoners

A female prisoner shall at all times during detention or imprisonment be under the care, custody and supervision of a female prison officer.

61. Particulars of prisoners to be recorded

Upon admission of any person into custody, the officer in charge shall record or cause to be recorded in the relevant registers particulars of that person.

62. Search of prisoners on admission to custody

(1) Every prisoner shall on admission to a prison and subsequently at such times as the officer in charge may determine, be searched and all prohibited articles removed from his or her possession; and the search shall be conducted by a prison officer of the same sex as the person being searched and shall not be conducted in the presence of a person of the opposite sex.

(2) On admission to a prison, all money, clothes and personal effects belonging to such prisoner which he or she is not permitted under this Act to retain shall be placed into the custody of the officer in charge after the items have been properly entered in prescribed registers.

(3) The articles referred to in subsection (2) shall be returned to the prisoner on his or her release or discharge from prison.

(4) The officer in charge shall keep or cause to be kept an inventory of all money, clothes or personal effects placed in his or her custody.

63. Prisoners to be in custody of the officer in charge

(1) Every person committed to prison shall be in the lawful custody of the officer in charge during the whole period of imprisonment and shall be subject to prison discipline and the provisions of this Act.

(2) The officer in charge shall ensure that every person committed to prison under a warrant or order, is detained in accordance with the provisions of the warrant or order, until the person is lawfully released from prison.

64. Custody of unconvicted prisoners

(1) Prisoners who are not convicted are presumed to be innocent and shall be treated as such and they shall be kept separate from convicted prisoners.

(2) Where a prisoner is committed for remand in a prison by order of a court or other competent authority, he or she shall be handed over to the custody of the officer in charge with the warrant of commitment, and officer in charge shall detain the prisoner in custody for a period indicated in the warrant and cause the prisoner to be discharged at such time, or as to the terms of the warrant in question may specify.

(3) For the purposes of his or her defence, an untried prisoner shall be allowed to apply for free legal aid where such aid is available, to receive visits from a legal advisor, and for these purposes, the prisoner shall if he or she desires to be supplied with writing materials and the interviews between the prisoner and the legal advisor may be within sight but not within the hearing of a police or prison officer.

65. Certain prisoners to be treated as unconvicted prisoners

(1) Where a sentence of imprisonment imposed on prisoner requires confirmation by the High Court and the prisoner elects to postpone serving the sentence until High Court makes a confirmation or other order, such prisoner shall, between the date of the election and making of the confirmation or other order, be treated as an unconvicted prisoner.

(2) Where a prison sentence is confirmed by the High Court under subsection (1), the period spent by a person in detention as an unconvicted prisoner shall be counted as part of his or her term of imprisonment.

66. Release on bail

Where a person is arrested in respect of a criminal offence—

(a) in the case of an offence which is triable by the High Court as well as by a subordinate court, the person shall be released on bail on such conditions as the court considers reasonable, if that person has been remanded in custody in respect of the offence before trial for one hundred and twenty days;

(b) in the case of an offence triable only by the High Court, the person shall be released on bail on such conditions as the court considers reasonable, if the person has been remanded in custody for three hundred and sixty days before the case is committed to the High Court.

67. Prisoners required as witnesses

(1) Whenever the presence of a person confined in a prison is required by a court or other competent authority, the court or competent authority may issue an order addressed to the officer in charge requiring production before the court or other competent authority of the person in proper custody at a time and place to be named in the order.

(2) The officer in charge shall cause the person named in the order to be brought up as directed and shall provide for safe custody during his or her absence from prison.

(3) A court or competent authority may endorse on the order requiring the person named in the order to be again brought up at any time to which the matter in which the person is required may be adjourned.

(4) A prisoner taken from a prison in pursuance of an order made under this section shall, while outside the prison, be kept in custody as the officer in charge may direct and while in custody shall be deemed to be in lawful custody.

68. Prisoners to be subject to prison discipline

Every prisoner shall be subject to prison discipline and to all laws, orders and directions relating to prisons and prisoners during the whole time of imprisonment whether he or she is within the premises of the prison or not.

69. Prisoners entitled to food

(1) A prisoner shall be provided with food of nutritious value adequate for health and strength by the prison administration, at the usual hours and the food shall be of wholesome quality, well prepared and served.

(2) Drinking water shall be available to every prisoner whenever he or she needs it.

70. Prisoner to have exercise

Every prisoner not employed in outdoor work shall have at least one hour of suitable exercise in the open air daily.

71. Prisoners to make complaints to prison authorities

(1) A prisoner shall have the opportunity each day of the week to make a request or complaint to the officer in charge of the prison or the officer authorised to represent him or her.

(2) A prisoner may make a request or complaint to the Inspector of Prisons during his or her inspection without the officer in charge or other members of the staff being present.

(3) A prisoner shall be allowed to make a request or complaint, without censorship as to substance but in proper form, to the Commissioner General, the judicial authority or other proper authorities through approved channels.

72. Petitions

Any prisoner may petition the President, but in exercising that right, shall address the President through the Commissioner General.

73. Removal of prisoners to other prisons

(1) A prisoner on being sentenced or during confinement, may be removed to any prison established under this Act.

(2) A sentence of imprisonment lawfully imposed upon a person may be served partly in one prison and partly in another.

(3) The Commissioner General may, by general or special order, direct that a prisoner be transferred from the prison to which he or she was committed or in which he or she is detained to another prison.

(4) At the Commissioner General's discretion, a prisoner shall, if practicable be kept in and released from a prison situated in the area to which the prisoner belongs.

(5) A prisoner who is being transferred or conveyed from one prison to another prison or place shall, while outside the prison, be deemed to be in the custody of the prison officer.

(6) A prisoner who escapes from the custody of a prison officer, referred to in subsection (5) shall be deemed to have escaped from lawful custody.

74. Treatment of prisoners who are insane or mentally abnormal

(1) Insane and mentally abnormal persons shall not be detained in prison and arrangements shall be made to remove them to a mental hospital as soon as possible.

(2) Where a medical officer or officer in charge is of the opinion that a prisoner is insane or mentally abnormal, the officer shall take all necessary action to produce his or her judgement under the Mental Treatment Act; if a magistrate adjudges such prisoner to be a person of unsound mind the prisoner shall be removed promptly from the prison and confined in a mental hospital.

(3) Where a prisoner removed to a mental hospital is entitled to be discharged, the medical superintendent in charge of the mental hospital shall notify the officer in charge of the prison from which the prisoner was removed and the prisoner shall be delivered into custody if still liable to be confined in prison, and if not so liable, be released.

(4) The period during which the prisoner has been detained in the mental hospital shall be reckoned as part of his or her term of imprisonment.

75. Removal of sick prisoners to hospital

(1) In the case of illness of a prisoner confined in a prison where there is no suitable accommodation for that prisoner, the officer in charge on the advice of the medical officer, may make an order for his or her removal to a hospital and in cases of emergency, the removal may be ordered by the officer in charge without the advice of the medical officer.

(2) A prisoner who has been removed to a hospital under this section shall be deemed to be under detention in the prison from which he or she was so removed.

(3) Where the medical officer in charge of a hospital considers that the health of a prisoner removed to hospital under this section no longer requires his or her detention there, he or she shall notify the officer in charge who shall cause the prisoner to be brought to the prison if he or she is still liable to be confined in the prison.

(4) Every reasonable precaution shall be taken by the medical officer in charge of a hospital and the other officers and employees of the hospital to prevent the escape of a prisoner who may at any time be under treatment in the hospital.

(5) The officers and employees of the hospital shall take such measures to prevent the escape of the prisoner as shall be necessary but nothing shall be done under the authority of this section which in the opinion of the medical officer in charge of the hospital is likely to be prejudicial to the health of the prisoner.

76. Measures for security of prisoners in hospital

(1) Where in any case from the gravity of the offence for which a prisoner may be in custody or for any other reason, the officer in charge considers it desirable to take special measures for the security of a prisoner while under treatment in hospital, the officer in charge shall leave the prisoner into the charge of fit and proper persons, not being less than two in number, one of whom shall always be with the prisoner day and night.

(2) The persons under subsection (1) shall be vested with full power and authority to do all things necessary to prevent the prisoner from escaping and shall be answerable for his or her safe custody until such time as he or she is handed over to the officer in charge on discharge from hospital or until such time as his or her sentence expires, whichever may first occur.

(3) If a prisoner escapes while in hospital, mental hospital or leper settlement, no prison officer shall be held answerable for the escape, unless the prisoner shall have been in the personal custody of the officer.

77. Right to information

(1) A prisoner shall be informed of provisions of this Act, rules and administrative instructions applicable to him or her.

(2) The provisions of this Act and any rules, standing orders or administrative instructions made or issued under this Act relating to the treatment and conduct of prisoners shall be printed in the official language and in any other languages that the Commissioner General may determine and shall be made available to every prisoner immediately on admission to a prison, or if a prisoner is unable to read and understand any of the languages in which the provisions have been printed, the officer in charge shall ensure that the contents of those provisions are orally explained to the prisoner.

78. Contact with outside world

(1) Communications, other than communications with legal representatives, between prisoners and their relatives and friends shall only be allowed in accordance with this Act, subject to such restrictions as the officer in charge may think are necessary for the maintenance of discipline and order in the prison, and the prevention of crime.

(2) On admission a prisoner shall be entitled to write and receive a “reception letter” and to receive a visit and on transfer to another prison a prisoner shall be entitled to write and receive a “transfer letter”.

79. Re-arrest of prisoner released erroneously

If the Commissioner General reasonably suspects that a prisoner has been released from a prison erroneously, he or she may issue a warrant for the re-arrest of that prisoner, which warrant may be executed by any police officer or prison officer and shall serve as authority for the detention of the prisoner in a prison.

80. Imprisonment in lieu of default of payment of fine

Any imprisonment which is imposed by court in lieu or default of payment of a fine shall, prior to the expiration of the imprisonment thereof, terminate whenever that fine is paid or is lawfully levied under the process of any law authorising the levy of the fine, provided that courts shall be encouraged to pass community orders as alternative to imprisonment where an offender fails to pay a fine.

81. Restraint of a prisoner in a separate cell

(1) Where the officer in charge considers it necessary—

(a) to secure or restrain a prisoner who has—

- (i) displayed or threatened violence;
- (ii) been recaptured after escape from custody or in respect of whom there is good reason to believe that he or she is contemplating escape from custody; or
- (iii) been recommended on medical grounds for confinement in a separate cell by a medical officer; or

(b) for the good order and discipline of a prisoner to be isolated and not to work or communicate with other prisoners, the officer in charge may order that such prisoner be confined in a separate cell for a period, not exceeding fourteen days, as he or she may deem necessary.

(2) Stripping a prisoner naked, pouring water in a cell of a prisoner, depriving him or her of food and administering corporal punishment and torture is prohibited.

82. Foreign prisoners

(1) A foreign prisoner, on admission to a prison shall, as far as possible, be given similar treatment as a prisoner who is a national; in particular, a foreign prisoner shall have the same access as a national prisoner to education, work and vocational training.

(2) The religious precepts and customs of a foreign prisoner shall be respected.

(3) A foreign prisoner shall be allowed reasonable facilities to communicate with his or her family, diplomatic or consular representatives of the state to which he or she belongs.

(4) A prisoner who is a national of a state without diplomatic or consular representation in Uganda or a refugee or stateless person shall be allowed similar facilities to communicate with the diplomatic representative of the state which takes charge of his or her interests or any national or international authority whose task it is to protect such persons.

(5) Humanitarian international organizations shall be given the opportunity to assist all prisoners including foreign prisoners.

(6) Foreign prisoners shall be informed promptly after reception into a prison, in a language that they understand and generally in writing, of the main features of the prison regime, including relevant rules and regulations.

(7) Foreign prisoners should be given proper assistance, in a language they can understand, when dealing with medical or programme staff and in such matters as complaints, special accommodation, special diets and religious representation and counselling.

83. Release of prisoners on full remission

(1) The officer in charge shall be responsible for the due discharge of a prisoner immediately upon becoming entitled to release.

(2) A prisoner who is due for release, but is still under treatment by the medical officer shall be discharged from prison to a medical or social service outside the prison as necessary.

(3) A prisoner shall be discharged before noon on the date on which he or she is entitled to be released, but if the date falls on a Sunday or a public holiday, he or she shall be released before noon on the day preceding the Sunday or public holiday.

84. Remission of part of sentence of certain prisoners

(1) A convicted prisoner sentenced to imprisonment whether by one sentence or consecutive sentences for a period exceeding one month, may by industry and good conduct earn a remission of one third of his or her sentence or sentences.

(2) For the purpose of giving effect to subsection (1), each prisoner on admission shall be credited with the full amount of remission to which he or she would be entitled at the end of his or her sentence or sentences if he or she lost or forfeited no such remission.

85. Loss of remission

A prisoner may lose remission as a result of its forfeiture as a punishment for an offence against prison discipline and shall not earn any remission in respect of any period spent in hospital through his or her own fault or while malingering, or while undergoing confinement as a punishment in a separate cell.

86. Grounds for grant of further remission by the President

(1) The Commissioner General may recommend to the Minister responsible for justice to advise the President under article 121(4)(d) of the Constitution to grant a further remission on special grounds.

(2) The Commissioner General may restore forfeited remission in whole or in part.

(3) For the purpose of calculating remission of sentence, imprisonment for life shall be deemed to be twenty years' imprisonment.

87. Habitual criminals to be released on licence only

(1) A habitual criminal sentenced to imprisonment whether by one sentence or consecutive sentences for a period of three years or more who is released under section 83 of this Act shall be released on licence.

(2) A licence under subsection (1) shall be granted by the Commissioner General and shall authorise the prisoner to be at large in Uganda or in any other territory with the government of which reciprocal arrangements have been made under subsection (10) or in any part of Uganda, or other country as shall be specified in the licence.

(3) The Commissioner General shall revoke or alter such licence at his or her discretion.

(4) A licence granted under this section shall be in the prescribed form and shall be granted subject to the prescribed conditions; the Commissioner General may waive any conditions in the case of a particular prisoner.

(5) If a prisoner released on a licence granted under this section is convicted of any offence or fails to comply with any of the conditions of the licence by any act or omission that is not of itself an offence, the prisoner shall be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months and to have his or her licence forfeited by order of a magistrate.

(6) Where a licence under this section is forfeited or revoked, the prisoner whose licence is forfeited or revoked shall, after undergoing any other punishment to which he or she has been sentenced, undergo a further term of imprisonment equal to the portion of his or her imprisonment as remained unexpired at the date of his or her release on licence, calculated without any remission previously earned or granted.

(7) Whenever a licence is revoked by the Commissioner General, any magistrate shall, on the production to him or her of a certificate of such revocation signed by the Commissioner General, issue a warrant for the apprehension of the person to whom the licence was granted.

(8) The person on being apprehended shall be brought before a magistrate or some other magistrate exercising jurisdiction in the same area who shall make out his or her warrant for the recommitment of the person to prison to undergo the residue of the sentence as remained unexpired at the date of the release under licence calculated without remission previously earned or granted.

(9) Where a licence is forfeited by order of a magistrate under subsection (4), the magistrate shall make out a warrant for the recommitment of the person to prison to undergo the residue of his or her sentence that remained unexpired at the date of his or her release under licence calculated without any remission previously earned or granted.

(10) The Minister may, by statutory order, declare any other country to be a country with the government of which reciprocal arrangements have been made by the Uganda Government for the surrender of persons whose licences have been revoked.

(11) Where a warrant has been issued under subsection (7) for the apprehension of a person whose licence has been revoked, it shall be lawful for the magistrate issuing the warrant to forward it for execution to any court having jurisdiction in such other country.

(12) A warrant issued by a court having jurisdiction in another country for the apprehension of a person who, in such other country, has been released on licence and whose licence has been subsequently revoked may be executed in Uganda in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as if the provisions of Part II of the Extradition Act applied to such warrant.

(13) For the purposes of this section, “habitual criminal” means a person who has been sentenced on four separate occasions to imprisonment for any offence contained in Chapters XXVI to XXXIX inclusive of the Penal Code Act or for any attempt to conspiracy any such offence.

88. Review of sentences

(1) The Commissioner General shall submit to the Minister responsible for justice a report on the general condition and conduct of every prisoner undergoing imprisonment for life or for a term exceeding seven years, at the end of every four years of such imprisonment or at such lesser period as the Minister or the Commissioner General considers desirable.

(2) A review referred to in subsection (1) shall include—

- (a) a statement by the officer in charge of the prison, where the prisoner concerned is detained on work and conduct of the prisoner;
- (b) a report from the medical officer on the mental and physical health of such a prisoner with particular reference to the effect of imprisonment on the health of the prisoner;
- (c) from the social worker about the community attitude and possible reintegration of the prisoner back into community.

89. Release on parole

(1) A prisoner serving a sentence of imprisonment for a period of three years or more may be allowed by the Commissioner General within six months of the date he or she is due for release on conditions and for reasons approved by the Commissioner General to be temporarily absent from prison on parole for a stated length of time which shall not be greater than three months.

(2) The Commissioner General may at any time recall a prisoner released on parole.

(3) A prisoner who fails to return to prison on the completion of the period of his or her parole or when informed that he or she has been recalled under subsection (2) commits an offence and may be arrested without warrant and is liable on conviction to the same punishment as if he or she has escaped from prison.

(4) A prisoner when released on parole who contravenes the conditions imposed upon him or her commits an offence and is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months.

90. Social relations and after care

(1) Special attention shall be paid to the maintenance and improvements of relations between a prisoner and his or her family as are desirable in the best interests of both.

(2) From the beginning of a prisoner's sentence, consideration shall be given to his or her future after release and he or she shall be encouraged and assisted to maintain or establish such relations with persons or agencies outside the prison as may promote the best interests of his family and his own social rehabilitation.

(3) The Service in conjunction with other services and agencies, governmental or otherwise, which assist released prisoners to re-establish themselves in society shall ensure, so far as is possible and necessary, that released prisoners be provided with appropriate documents and identification papers, have suitable homes and work to go to, are suitably and adequately clothed having regard to the climate and season, and have sufficient means to reach their destination and maintain themselves in the period immediately following their release.

(4) The approved representatives of the agencies shall have all necessary access to the prison and to prisoners and shall be taken into consultation as to the future of a prisoner from the beginning of his or her sentence.

(5) It is desirable that the activities of the agencies shall be centralized or co-ordinated as far as possible in order to secure the best use of their efforts.

PART IX—OFFENCES RELATING TO PRISONS AND PRISONERS.

91. Punishment in different prisons

A punishment lawfully imposed may be carried out partly in one prison and partly in another.

92. Forfeiture of remission as punishment

No prisoner shall be ordered to forfeit as a punishment more remission than he or she has earned.

93. Prescription of prison offences by the Minister

The Minister may, in consultation with the Commissioner General, prescribe what acts or omissions constitute a prison offence.

94. Punishment by confinement

Punishment by close confinement shall not be inflicted unless the medical officer has examined the prisoner and certified in writing that the prisoner is fit to sustain it and the medical officer may advise the officer in charge to terminate the punishment if he or she considers it necessary on grounds of physical or mental health.

95. Prisoners may be charged before court for offences against discipline

(1) A prisoner may be charged before a magistrate with an offence against discipline and the magistrate may on convicting the prisoner, award any of the punishments mentioned in section 102, 103, 104, 105, 106, of this Act and, in addition or in lieu thereof, may award imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months to run consecutively with the sentence then being served.

(2) No proceedings shall be taken against a prisoner in respect of any matter for which he or she has been punished under this Act.

96. Prisoners right to defence

A prisoner shall not be punished for a prison offence until the prisoner has had an opportunity of hearing the charge against him or her and making a defence and where necessary and practicable, the prisoner shall be allowed the services of an interpreter.

97. Restriction on prisoner punishing

A prison officer shall not employ a prisoner in the punishment of a fellow prisoner.

98. Registration of punishments

The officer in charge shall cause to be entered in a register to be open to the inspection of the visiting justices a record of all punishments imposed upon prisoners showing, in respect of each prisoner punished, the name, the nature of offence and the extent of punishment.

99. Punishment imposed on prisoner to be effected

(1) A punishment lawfully imposed on a prisoner under this Act or any rules made under the Act may be carried into effect notwithstanding that the carrying into effect thereof may necessitate the detention of the prisoner beyond the date at which he or she would have otherwise been entitled to be discharged from prison.

(2) The period of detention shall not exceed forty-eight hours and the period shall be calculated from the last hour of the day upon which the prisoner would otherwise be entitled to be discharged.

100. Offence in relation to prisoner trafficking

(1) A person who without lawful authority—

(a) conveys, supplies or causes to be supplied or conveyed to a prisoner, whether within or outside a prison or hides or places for his or her use any letter or document or any intoxicating liquor, tobacco, bhang or hemp, drug, opiate, money, clothing, provisions or any other article whatsoever;

(b) brings or attempts to bring by any means whatsoever into a prison, or places or attempts to place where prisoners work any letter or document, intoxicating liquor, tobacco, bhang or hemp, drug, opiate, money, clothing, or provisions;

(c) brings or attempts to bring out of a prison or conveys from prison any letter or document; or

(d) communicates with any prisoner without lawful authority, commits an offence and is on conviction liable to imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year or to a fine not exceeding thirty currency points or to both.

101. Prohibited articles

(1) A person who, without lawful authority—

(a) brings or introduces in any manner into a prison a prohibited article; or

(b) takes out from prison a prohibited article, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding thirty currency points or to imprisonment not exceeding one year.

(2) In this section, “prohibited article” means any article enumerated in a list that the Commissioner General has decided shall be prohibited.

(3) The list in subsection (2) shall be signed by the Commissioner General or by the officer in charge on behalf of the Commissioner General and it shall be fixed in a conspicuous place outside every prison.

(4) The list shall be written in English, Swahili and the language that the officer in charge considers to be the local vernacular.

102. Seizure of prohibited articles

Whether or not any criminal or disciplinary proceedings are commenced against any person, a prison officer may seize any article found to be unlawfully in a prison and the Commissioner General may order its confiscation and forfeiture.

103. Trespassing

(1) A person who without lawful authority enters or remains within the boundaries of a prison or any place where prisoners are working, commits an offence and if he or she refuses to leave when asked to do so, may be arrested by a prison officer or a police officer.

(2) A person convicted of an offence under subsection (1) is on conviction liable to a fine not exceeding fifteen currency points or for a period not exceeding six months or to both fine and imprisonment.

104. Unlawful possession of prison articles

(a) A person found in possession of any article whatsoever which has been supplied to a prison officer for use on duty, or of other prison property and who fails to account satisfactorily for the possession of the article or property;

(b) who without due authority purchases or receives any article or property from any prison officer;

(c) who aids or abets any prison officer to sell or dispose of any such article or property, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding ten currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to both.

105. Incitement to mutiny or disobedience

A person who—

- (a) directly or indirectly instigates, commands, counsels, or solicits any mutiny, sedition or disobedience to any lawful command of a prison officer to any other prison officer; or
- (b) maliciously endeavours to seduce any prison officer from his or her allegiance or duty, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years.

106. Harboursing prisoners

A person who knowingly harbours a prisoner in a house, land or otherwise, or who knowingly employs any person under sentence of imprisonment and illegally at large, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year.

107. General penalty

A person who contravenes the provisions of this Act or any rules made under this Act, commits an offence and if no penalty is specially provided, shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding thirty currency points or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both.

108. Power to prosecute under other laws not affected

Nothing in this Act shall exempt a prisoner or any other person from being prosecuted under any other law for the time being in force for any offence made punishable by this Act, or from being liable under any other law to any other or higher penalty or punishment than is provided for under such offence by this Act; but no person shall be tried twice for the same offence.

PART X—VISITING JUSTICES, OFFICIAL VISITORS AND MINISTERS OF RELIGION.

109. Inspection of prisons by visiting justices

(1) There shall be regular inspections of all prison institutions by persons to be known as Visiting Justices who shall be appointed by the Minister by statutory instrument.

(2) For the purpose of this Act, the following persons shall be ex-officio visiting Justices in respect of all prisons in Uganda—

- (a) Chairperson and members of Uganda Human Rights Commission;
- (b) a Judge of the High Court, Court of Appeal and Supreme Court;
- (c) the Minister responsible for internal affairs.
- (d) the Minister responsible for justice;
- (e) all Cabinet Ministers;
- (f) a Chief Magistrate and resident magistrates in any area in which the prison is situated;

- (g) the Chief Administrative Officer of the District in which a prison is situated;
- (h) the Permanent Secretary in the Ministry responsible for internal affairs;
- (i) the Inspector General of Government.

(3) In addition to the persons referred to in subsection (2) the Minister in consultation with the Commissioner General and on the recommendation of a Chief Administrative Officer may from time to time appoint by notice in the Gazette fit and proper persons within the District to serve as Visiting Justices in that region.

110. Functions of visiting justices

(1) A Visiting Justice may at any time visit a prison in respect of which he or she is a Visiting Justice, and may—

- (a) inspect every part of the prison and visit every prisoner in the prison where practicable especially those in confinement;
- (b) inspect and test the quality and quantity of food ordinarily served to prisoners;
- (c) inquire into any complaints or requests made by a prisoner;
- (d) ascertain as far as possible whether the rules, administrative instructions, standing orders issued to the prisoner and the prisoner's rights are brought to their attention and are observed;
- (e) inspect any book, document or record relating to the management, discipline and treatment of prisoners; and
- (f) perform such other functions as may be prescribed.

(2) On completion of each visit, a Visiting Justice shall enter in the Visiting Justices' Book to be kept by the officer in charge for the purpose such remarks, suggestions and recommendations about his or her findings as he or she may deem necessary for the attention of the Commissioner General.

(3) The officer in charge shall take an extract of the Visiting Justices' Book comments made in the Visiting Justices' Book referred to in subsection (2) with his or her own comments and submit the same as soon as possible to the Commissioner General for his or her attention and reaction.

(4) The Visiting Justices for any prison may appoint a Chairperson and may act as a Board of Visiting Justices and may at the end of each year or at any other convenient time make a report to the Commissioner General on the state of the prison for which they are Visiting Justices.

(5) The Board of Visiting Justices in subsection (4) shall be provided with funds to facilitate their work as the Minister may determine.

111. Powers of Cabinet Ministers and Judges

(1) A Cabinet Minister or a Judge may at any time he or she thinks fit enter into and examine the condition of any prison and of the prisoners in the prison and may question any prisoner or prison officer, and may enter any observations he or she thinks fit to make in reference to the condition of the prison in a visitor's book to be kept for that purpose by the officer in charge.

(2) The officer in charge shall inform the Commissioner General of any observations so entered in the visitor's book.

112. Inspection by other bodies or groups

(1) Inspections may also be carried out by the Inspector General of Government, the Special Rapporteur on Prisons of the African Commission on Human and Peoples Rights.

(2) Subject to the permission of the Commissioner General, inspection may be carried out by teams composed of persons coming from other official or external bodies or non-governmental organisations and human rights groups.

113. Appointment of religious ministers or priests to be prison ministers

(1) The Minister shall appoint, by statutory instrument, ministers or priests of any religious faith to be prison ministers.

(2) The Commissioner General shall make standing orders for the guidance of the prison ministers who may receive such remuneration in terms of salaries or allowances as the case may be.

(3) A religious minister shall—

(a) visit prisoners in prison for which he or she is appointed to conduct religious services for the benefit of prisoners;

(b) hold religious and moral fellowships and interactions and counselling for benefit of prisoners.

(4) Access to a qualified representative of any religion shall not be refused to any prison and if any prisoner objects to a visit of any religious representative, his or her opinion shall be respected.

(5) So far as practicable, every prisoner shall be allowed to satisfy the needs of his or her religious life by attending the services provided in the institution and having in his or her possession the books of religious observance and instruction of his or her denomination.

PART XI—MISCELLANEOUS.

114. Prisons Contracts Committee

(1) There shall be established a prisons contracts committee as specified by the Public Procurement and Disposal of the Public Assets Act.

(2) The Minister may make regulations under section 124 of this Act to regulate the functions and operations of the prisons contracts committee.

115. Prisons Welfare Fund

(1) There shall be a fund established to be known as the Prisons Welfare Fund.

(2) Into the Prisons Welfare Fund shall be paid all fines and other authorised payments to the Service as a result of orders by disciplinary committees.

(3) The Fund shall also consist of donations from Government and other sources.

(4) The Fund shall be subjected to the Public Finance and Accountability Act.

(5) The Minister in consultation with the Commissioner General and other Service organs may by statutory instrument provide for payments out of the Fund for the benefit of the families of a deceased prison officer.

(6) A person responsible for any gratuity, allowance, or other moneys or personal property belonging to a prison officer who dies while in the Service, shall pay or deliver the same to the Chief Administrative Officer or the Administrator General as the case may be, who shall dispose of the same in accordance with subsection (4) of this section.

116. Transfer of local administration prisons

(1) The functions and administration of the local administration prisons shall be taken over by the Service.

(2) A person who immediately before the coming into force of this Act held or was acting in any office in the local administration prisons, so far as is consistent with this Act, shall be taken to have been appointed as from the coming into force of this Act, to hold or act in the equivalent office under this Act.

(3) A person being held as a prisoner or detained in custody in a local administration prison at the time this Act came into force shall be taken to be held or detained by the Service.

(4) The assets and liabilities of the local administration prisons shall be taken over by the Service.

117. Lock-ups not classified as prisons

(1) A police officer or any other law enforcement officer may arrest and detain an accused person in a lock-up pending trial, but in any case for not more than forty-eight hours from the time of his or her arrest.

(2) A lock-up shall not be a prison for the purposes of this Act.

118. List of prisoners awaiting trial

The officer in charge of a prison shall, before the commencement of a session of the High Court, file in that court a list of every prisoner within that prison awaiting trial in that court, the date of his or her admission into prison and the authority for his or her detention and when last appeared in court.

119. Reward for apprehension of escaped prisoner

(1) Where a prisoner escapes from lawful custody, the Commissioner General may offer a monetary reward to any person who—

- (a) gives information leading to the apprehension of such prisoner; or
- (b) apprehends, secures and hands over such prisoner to the officer in charge of a prison or police station and may, whether or not a reward has previously been offered, pay to such person a refund of any reasonable expenses incurred as a result of the apprehension, as the Commissioner General may determine.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), no prison officer or member of the Uganda Police Force and security organ whose duty is to handle the security of prisoners and maintenance of law and order shall be entitled to any reward under subsection (1) for the apprehension of an escaped prisoner unless the Commissioner General is of the opinion that exceptional circumstances exist to justify such reward being paid.

120. Rewards of gratuities for prison officers

(1) The Commissioner General may in his or her opinion or on the recommendation of a Judge, or a magistrate, grant a monetary reward or gratuity to a prison officer who in the course of duty has—

- (a) suffered bodily injuries;
- (b) performed special acts of bravery such as saving or attempting to save life or property from loss or danger;
- (c) rendered valuable information acquired by personal risk, hardship or unusual skill or;
- (d) rendered any other special or meritorious service.

(2) Every reward or gratuity granted under subsection (1) shall be subject to the approval of the Minister in consultation with the Minister responsible for finance and shall be paid from rewards fund or welfare fund as the Minister and the Commissioner General may see fit.

121. Detention of prisoners sentenced abroad

(1) A Ugandan citizen who has been duly sentenced to a term of imprisonment by a competent court of law within a foreign country, may be transferred to a prison in Uganda to serve the whole or the unexpired portion of the sentence, and shall, on such transfer, be subject to the provisions of this Act as if he or she was serving a sentence of a competent court in Uganda.

(2) The Minister may, by notice in the Gazette, specify the countries to which this section applies.

(3) A certificate under the hand of the Minister certifying that, from the documents laid before him or her, it appears that the person named in the certificate has been sentenced, the period of imprisonment specified in the certificate shall be accepted as proof during the continuity of such period, that that person is lawfully detained in accordance with the provisions of this section.

122. Transfer of prisoners to other countries

(1) Subject to the provisions of the Extradition Act, or any other law or any reciprocal arrangement where a person who is not a citizen of Uganda is sentenced to a period of imprisonment by a competent court of law in Uganda, the Minister may by warrant authorise that such a person be transferred to the country of which he or she is a citizen to serve the rest of his or her term of imprisonment in accordance with the law of that country, provided that country and the prisoner concerned agree to that procedure.

(2) A person who is being transferred under subsection (1) shall, while in Uganda, be deemed to be in lawful custody.

(3) The transfer of a person to another country under this section shall not affect that person's right under any law to appeal against his or her conviction or sentence in a court of law in Uganda.

123. Delegation of powers

(1) The Commissioner General may—

- (a) delegate any power conferred upon him or her under this Act, excluding the power to make or issue rules, standing orders or administrative instructions to the Deputy Commissioner General; or
- (b) assign the performance of any function or duty entrusted to him or her under this Act to a prison officer.

(2) The officer in charge may—

- (a) delegate any power conferred upon him or her under this Act to any senior prison officer employed under him or her in that prison; or
- (b) assign the performance of any function or duty entrusted to him or her under this Act to any senior prison officer employed in that prison under him or her.

(3) A delegation or assignment under subsection (1) or (2) may be made subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be determined by the Commissioner General or officer in charge as the case may be, and may be withdrawn or amended by him or her in writing.

124. Regulations

(1) The Minister may in consultation with the Commissioner General, by statutory instrument, make regulations for the effective management and government of prisons and prisoners whether in, about or beyond the limits of the prison, and generally for the better carrying out of the provisions and purposes of this Act.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the Minister may provide for—

- (a) the classification of prisons and prisoners into categories, and their separation accordingly;
- (b) the duties and responsibilities of prison officers including the duties and responsibilities of particular classes of these officers;
- (c) the duties and powers of Visiting Justices;
- (d) the duties of medical and dental officers, the inspection of prisons and prisoners, and the mode of preventing contagious diseases in prisons;

- (h) the payment of prisoners for work done while in prison;
- (i) the establishment of a prisons rewards and fines fund and the method of administration of the fund by the Commissioner General;
- (j) the establishment of prisoners' connection with discharged prisoners and the appointment of officers responsible for the after-care of prisoners;
- (k) the medical examination, photographing and taking of fingerprint impressions or other records of prisoners confined in a prison or otherwise detained in custody including detailed personal statistics and histories, and for requiring full and truthful answers to all questions put to such persons with the object of obtaining statistics and histories; and the persons, if any, to whom such measurements, photographs, fingerprint impressions or other records are to be sent or supplied;
- (l) the execution of condemned prisoners;

- (m) the disposal of products of prison labour;
- (n) the disposal of prisoners' property left unclaimed for a prescribed period including its sale and the disposal of the proceeds of such sale;
- (o) the manner in which the remission of sentences shall be calculated;
- (p) prescribe any other thing that may be prescribed under this Act.

125. Repeal of Cap. 304 and savings

(1) The Prisons Act, Cap. 304 is repealed.

(2) All appointments, enlistments or orders made, directions given or penalties incurred under the Prisons Act shall, so far as they are consistent with the provisions of this Act, be deemed to have been respectively made, given or incurred under this Act.

(3) Notwithstanding the repeal of the Prisons Act—

- (a) any rules, orders, directions or notices made under that Act shall remain in force until replaced by rules, orders, directions or notices made under this Act;
- (b) all prisons established under that Act shall be deemed to be prisons established under this Act;
- (c) all prison officers appointed under that Act shall be deemed to have been appointed under this Act and shall be subject in so far as such provisions apply to them, to the provisions of this Act; and
- (d) all prisoners subject to the provisions of that Act shall be deemed to be subject to the provisions of this Act.
